The Nomination form (or a copy) enclosed with PR5 must be received by March 25, 2004, no later than midnight EST. Please mail as early as possible. Overseas members should send their nomination forms via airmail.

Additional information and an on-line nomination form are available on the Noreascon 4 web site at www.noreascon.org/hugos. Questions may be sent to HugoAdmin@noreascon.org.

Eligibility To Nominate

You may nominate for the 2004 Hugo and John W. Campbell Awards if you either: a) were an attending or supporting member of Torcon 3 (the 2003 World Science Fiction Convention), or b) are an attending or supporting member of Noreascon 4 (the 2004 World Science Fiction Convention) by January 31, 2004.

Please be sure to fill in the eligibility validation section on the second page. Don't forget to sign the nomination form – we cannot count your nomination form if it is unsigned.

Reproduction

Reproduction and distribution of this nomination form is permitted and encouraged, provided that it is reproduced verbatim (including nomination instructions), with no additional material other than the name of the person or publication responsible for the reproduction.

Eligibility

Works published in 2003 for the first time anywhere, or for the first time in English, are eligible for the Hugo Awards being awarded in 2004. Books are considered to have been published on the “publication date” that usually appears with the copyright information on the back of the title page. If there is no stated publication date, the copyright date will be used instead. A dated periodical is considered to have been published on the cover date, regardless of when it was placed on sale or copyrighted. Serialized stories or dramatic presentations are eligible in the year in which the last installment appears.

Special Extension: Any work originally published outside the USA at any time prior to 2003, and first published in the USA in 2003, and which did not receive sufficient nominations to appear on the final award ballot in an earlier year, is eligible for this year's Hugo Award.

Exclusions: The Noreascon 4 Committee has irrevocably delegated all Hugo administration authority to a subcommittee. Therefore, only Rick Katze, Mark Olson and Deb Geisler are ineligible for the 2004 Hugo Awards. Other rules of eligibility are given with the specific categories.

How to Nominate

You may nominate up to five persons or works in each category. However, you are permitted (and even encouraged) to make fewer nominations or none at all if you are not familiar with the works that fall into that category. The nominations are equally weighted – the order in which you list them has no effect on the outcome.

The five top nominees in each category (more in case of ties, fewer if not many nominations are cast in that category) will appear on the final Hugo Awards ballot, which will be distributed in April 2004. Only members of Noreascon 4 will be eligible to vote on the final ballot.

“No Award” will appear automatically in every category on the final ballot; there is no need to include that choice in the nominations.

Please include source information whenever possible. This is not mandatory, but does make it easier for us to identify the work you intend to nominate. For the Fiction, Dramatic Presentation, and Related Book categories, space has been provided for this. In the continuing categories (Professional Editor and after) there is less room, but if your nominee is not well-known, we would appreciate your writing in a source where his or her 2003 work in that category may be found.

This ballot must be received by March 25, 2004.
